RATHBONES ASSET MANAGEMENT

Rathbone SICAV Global Emerging Markets Equity Fund

F GBP ACC
31 October 2026

Investment Objective

The objective of the Fund is to achieve long-term capital growth. The Fund invests primarily in the equity and equity-related securities of companies domiciled in, have significant operations in, or derive the predominant proportion of their revenues or profits from countries in emerging markets. Emerging markets countries include those considered to be emerging or developing by the International Finance Corporation, or any country represented in a widely-recognised index of emerging market securities. Emerging markets are continuously evolving and therefore the list of emerging markets countries is continually changing.The sub-fund is classified as an Article 8 financial product under SFDR. There is no guarantee that this investment objective will be achieved over five years, or any other time period.

Investment Strategy

The Sub-Fund may also invest in equity and equity-related securities of companies in non-emerging markets countries, and in fixed income securities of companies within or outside of emerging markets countries, to meet the objective of the Sub-Fund. Equity and equity-related securities may include common stock, preferred stock, securities convertible or exchangeable into common stock, rights and warrants to purchase common stock, participatory notes (also known as P-notes), real estate investment trusts (where these qualify as transferable securities) and depositary receipts (such as American Depositary Receipts (ADRs) and Global Depositary Receipts (GDRs)) which comply with the provisions of article 41 of the 2010 Law and which do not invest in derivatives.

The Sub-Fund may use derivative financial instruments for the purposes of hedging, efficient portfolio management and for investment purposes to achieve its objective, in accordance with the investment limits and conditions set out in the UCITS Directive. These instruments may include futures, forwards, options and swaps, including contracts for difference (CFDs). Investors should note the specific risk warnings in relation to the investments in derivative instruments as defined in the prospectus

The Sub-Fund may invest directly in shares of companies in China. The Sub-Fund may invest up to 15% of its net assets in China A-Shares listed on the Hong Kong, Shanghai or Shenzhen stock exchanges through Stock Connect. The Sub-Fund may gain access to China-A Shares indirectly by purchasing participation notes, exchange traded funds, and UCIs.

The Sub-Fund may invest up to a maximum of 10% in UCITS and other eligible UCIs. The Sub-Fund will not invest in contingent convertible bonds.

Important Information

Copies of the Prospectus, the Key Information Document (KID), the Key Investor Information Document (KIID), the Supplementary Information Document (SID), and application forms may be obtained, free of charge, from Rathbones Asset Management Limited.

Strategy AUM is composed of the AUM of funds that share an investment strategy and similar regulatory constraints and are managed by the same fund management team. Where the funds are denominated in different currencies these have been converted into the share class currency of this factsheet as at month end using the European Central Bank exchange rate.

Investors should carefully read the Key Investor Information Document (KIID), Supplementary Information Document (SID) and Prospectus for detailed investor risks and before making an investment decision.

The value of investments and the income from them may go down as well as up and you may not get back your original investment.

Details of tax levels and reliefs may change in the future. The value of any tax relief depends on individual circumstances. If you have any doubts about your tax position, or the suitability of this investment, you should seek professional advice.

Changes in rates of exchange between currencies may cause the value of investments to decrease or increase.

Emerging markets are volatile and may suffer from liquidity problems.

Important Notes

If you require clarity on any of the terms used in this factsheet then please refer to our Supplementary Information Document for further explanation.

The OCF includes the charges for the underlying funds held in the product. From April 2018, the ongoing charges figure has been calculated according to PRIIPs regulations, which came into effect on 1 January 2018. Holdings are based on six monthly audited accounts. Changes to fund holdings within this period may result in higher or lower ongoing charges. The OCF is included in the Annual or Interim report and are calculated biannually. The OCF is estimated to reflect the expected ongoing expenses.
